

Clarion School, Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Seeks: Early Years & Elementary Teachers

Effective: August 2018

Overview of School

Clarion School, located in Dubai, is the only progressive school in the UAE. Built off the Bank Street College of Education framework, Clarion offers a PK – Grade 5 education with an additional grade added every year culminating in the IB / High School Diploma. Staffed by class teachers who all have a Master's Degree in Education, the school seeks to redefine educational excellence in the country. The current cohort of the school is 260 students expanding to 420 students next year. The school is staffed by American teachers (save for language specialists) and has a qualified Assistant Teacher in each class until Grade 5. The school caters to over 50 different nationalities with the largest population being North American.

Mission and Values

Our vision is to be the leading educational institution in the region, nurturing each student's potential so that they may take full advantage of life's opportunities as collaborative, productive and responsible members of a global community. Our core values are Achievement, Character, Service.

History of School

Clarion School was founded in 2016 and is the third school within the Scholars International Group portfolio.
